

Micronesia Specialist Contact Detail

Phone number : 625-3291
Ext :384
Email. akikko@cmi.edu
www.cmi/library

OPENING HOURS

Regular Semester Hours

- Monday to Friday — 8am—5pm
- Saturday and Sunday — Close

Holiday - Close

MICRONESIA COLLECTION

The Collection in Brief

Micronesia is a sub region of Oceania, comprising thousands of small island in the western pacific region, for example Kiribati, FSM,, Palau, Guam, CNMI, and especially Marshall Island.

In the collection you can find books, reports, magazines, posters, maps and resources on the history and other information from the region.

ONLINE RESOURCES

The following online resource are available on the CMI web page . www.cmi.edu/library

- EBSCO
- JSTOR
- Pacific Digital Library
- PACLII
- Pacific Collection (UH-Monona)
- SPC Digital Library
- NDMI Database – Pacific Community
- PAMBU – Marshall Islands Journal Collection
- Open Textbook Library
- Hawai'i Open Access -University of Hawai'i Press
- Bishop Museum's Online Learning Center
- HathiTrust Digital Library
- LOC – Virtual Reference Shelf
- Marshall Islands Journal

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS: ROOM USE ONLY PROCEDURES

1. We ask for your cooperation in preserving these items.
2. Leave your personal belongings with the librarian or in a locker including :
 - A. Cellphones B. Camera C. Books D. Pencil , pen or any writing implement, E.Paper F. Any other electronics.
3. Use only the designated rare artifact table
4. Only two item may be viewed at a time
5. Handle with care : a. Do not tear the materials , b. No chewing gum allow, c. No drinks and foods allowed.
6. No photocopying or scanning
7. See reference librarian if you have any question
8. Return all items to the special collection librarian when finished.
9. For court-related cases and other genealogy—related matters (e.g. repatriation), secure and provide a signed letter of permission from the council of irooj to the Marshall Island Royal Genealogies Rare Collections will be allowed access according to the procedures as listed. Lister in the current agreement and to the procedures as listed,

Note : A sign-up sheet will provide for the purpose of viewing the genealogies and be used to track usage and purpose.